

Human Trafficking Awareness

WHEREAS, evidence suggests over 90% of Canada's trafficking victims come from within Canada's borders;

AND WHEREAS, Canada has become a hotbed for human sex trafficking of minor-aged children. 60% of all of Canada's human trafficking can be linked in some way to activities that occur along the Hwy 401 corridor;

AND WHEREAS, human trafficking also affects other highly vulnerable populations; including but not limited to, the economically vulnerable, persons with disabilities, and runaway youth, with disproportionate vulnerability for youth who identify as gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender;

AND WHEREAS, public awareness about human trafficking needs to reach broader communities and communicate more information about this crime.

BE IT RESOLVED that Council for the Town of Mono is committed to help educate the public and promote awareness about human trafficking.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Council for the Town of Mono proclaims February 22 as Human Trafficking Awareness Day to help bring awareness to the magnitude of modern-day slavery in Canada and encourage Canadians to take steps to combat human trafficking.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Council for the Town of Mono encourages government and philanthropic organizations to fund research that would address gaps in knowledge related to human trafficking.

CryNot: Bringing Awareness about Human Trafficking!

There's a new important date on our calendar this year and a new group in town who wants to bring awareness about it.

February 22 is National Human Trafficking Awareness Day in Canada.

The big picture of human trafficking is sinister and devastating: it involves recruiting, holding or influencing a person for the purposes of sexual exploitation or forced labour. It's the dark underbelly of a world-wide problem and here in Dufferin-Caledon it's closer than you think.

Human trafficking has a personal face – it's our daughters, our young vulnerable women who are being lured into prostitution, sex trafficking and other forms of exploitation. It's a study in the finely-tuned manipulation of the vulnerable: promises of love and affection, provision of drugs and alcohol, threats of violence against families and friends; it's all about complete control of the victim.

Sex trafficking leaves a lasting impact on human life, families and communities. When the Rotary Club of Orangeville and Compass Community Church became aware of the threat of human trafficking in our area they formed a volunteer-driven group called Cry Not (Compass Rotary Youth- No Trafficking). It is a natural fit: the Rotary Club of Orangeville with its motto of 'service above self' has always had youth work as a focus and Compass Community Church has been serving the Dufferin-Caledon community for almost 160 years caring for youth and families.

The mission of Cry Not is clear:

- to reduce and eliminate human trafficking in our area by raising awareness
- to foster collaboration among like groups and organizations
- to equip adults with connections and resources available to defeat the human trafficking threat
- to create and maintain digital information on social media

According to a spokesperson for Cry Not, "our group does not feel qualified to undertake the involved follow-up work that can be required with victims as there are professional organizations to do that, but we feel strongly about bringing awareness about the threats, tactics and the personal costs of human trafficking."

How can Cry Not help?
